What is flatfair's No Deposit?

Instead of paying a traditional deposit, tenants secure their new home with a small check-in fee, and pay for any damages when it's time to move out. Landlords get up to 10 weeks' protection and they don't pay a penny.

Frequently asked questions

What are the benefits of flatfair?

Without an expensive upfront deposit, flatfair gives landlords a competitive advantage; your properties become affordable and attractive to more tenants, reducing voids. We facilitate fast resolution of charges and disputes with your tenants - in fact, you may even sell us unpaid established charges up to a total value of 10 weeks' rent (*though never more than 5 weeks' rent arrears). If worse comes to worst, you can appoint flatfair to recover any additional sums at no cost.

How much does flatfair cost?

Our No Deposit solution is completely free for landlords. For tenants, we charge a small check-in fee worth only one week's rent or £120 (whichever is the greater), plus VAT, split evenly across the household.

Does flatfair require tenants to be referenced?

Yes, all flatfair members must meet our minimum referencing criteria.

Is flatfair insurance?

No, our award-winning rental solutions company isn't insurance – it's something better. We're discretionary, so we judge every case based on its individual merit as well as our clear and transparent terms and conditions.

That means we can avoid rigid policy checklists and keep things flexible. It also means we can process charge recoveries more quickly, so landlords can rest easy knowing their rental is in safe and secure hands.

What if my tenant doesn't accept charges made against them?

flatfair works with government-backed independent adjudicators in the case of any disputes between the landlord and tenant. These are handled quickly and fairly to ensure a seamless check out process.

Is flatfair safe?

Definitely! In cases where tenants don't pay landlords for proven charges, flatfair is insured by AmTrust Financial, an A-rated insurer.

When does flatfair expire?

flatfair's security expires in line with the tenancy end date, or after 24 months (whatever comes first). It can be extended at any time through the flatfair platform, free of charge.
